

Want to get work-ready?
Get the know-how.

Get the know-how, now.

To find out more, go to employment.gov.au/parentsnext

Australian Government

Feel confident about getting back to work.

ParentsNext is a specialised support service for parents with kids under 6, to give you the help you need to feel confident about preparing for work.

Am I eligible?

- ✓ I have kids under 6
- ✓ I haven't had paid work in 6 months or more
- ✓ I live in one of the 10 areas listed

A time and place to suit you.

To make it easy to get to, the program is run in multiple locations in the areas listed below. So if you live in one of the listed areas – just go online and find the provider that is nearest to you.

- Bankstown area
- Wyong area
- Shellharbour area
- Greater Shepparton area
- Hume area
- Logan area
- Playford area
- Kwinana area
- Burnie area
- Rockhampton area

No matter which provider you choose, you can arrange appointments at a time to suit you. You can even take your child along to some of the sessions.

Your individual program will run for as long as it takes for you to get the know-how you need. You might only need a few sessions, or ongoing support.

Free 1 on 1 support.

Your ParentsNext provider can help with:

- Setting goals
- Interview practice
- Finding the right refresher course or qualifications
- Resumé and letter writing
- Advice on childcare subsidies